MANCHESTER MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO STORE AND BANK ROBBERIES

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE: United States Attorney Tom Colantuono, FBI Special Agent in Charge of the Boston Field Office Keneth W. Kaiser, and Manchester Police Chief John Jaskolka, today announced that Candido David Logan, 39, of Manchester, pleaded guilty in the United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire to five counts of robbery.

On December 1, 2004, a New Hampshire grand jury charged Logan with five robberies that took place in Manchester: the September 28, 2000 robbery of the Vista Foods on Wilson Street that resulted in a $2,880.00 loss, the October 31, 2000 robbery of the Fleet Bank on Massabesic Street that resulted in a $415.00 loss, the May 11, 2004 robbery of the Store 24 on Maple Street that resulted in a $70.00 loss, the May 12, 2004 robbery of the Citizens Bank on Wilson Street that resulted in a $3,000.00 loss, and the July 27, 2004 robbery of a New Hampshire Liquor Store on Lincoln Street that resulted in a $179 loss.

A sentencing hearing was scheduled for July 14, 2005. Logan faces a statutory maximum of 20 years imprisonment and a fine of $250,000.00 on each robbery. Under the advisory United States Sentencing Guidelines, Logan will likely be sentenced to a period of incarceration of less than 20 years. After his incarceration, Logan will be on supervised release for a period of at least two years. During the period of supervised release, Logan's behavior will be monitored by the United States Probation Department.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Manchester Police Department participated in the investigation and apprehension of Logan. U.S. Attorney Colantuono expressed his appreciation for the cooperative effort between these agencies in locating and capturing the defendant. "The exemplary work of the Manchester Police and the FBI resulted in the apprehension and successful prosecution of this defendant. By working as a team, our state and federal law enforcement agencies were able to remove this repeat offender from the streets," Colantuono stated.

The case was investigated by the Manchester Police Department and the FBI. It was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Don Feith.
